Thanks for booking some Email Mentoring with me!

I know you've got questions, so let's not waste any time.

When you email your question(s) to me, please use the following format.

This will ensure that your question is phrased clearly — which will allow me to answer you a lot more quickly and effectively.

Here's the format to use:

City where you live [optional]:

Birthday + time of birth [optional]:

Theresa,

Here is the problem I'm having with my business: _____.

This is what I have already done to try to resolve this problem on my own:

_____.

I'm really hoping you can help me _____.

Here is my specific question for you: _____.

Thank you!

What to do:

- See the text inside the purple box? Right on the previous page? Copy and paste all of that text into an email. Fill it out as briefly as you can.
- Email your question(s) to theresa@thetarotlady.com.
- If you purchased multiple questions, please send each question in a separate email. (That's super helpful and very appreciated.)
- Feel like you can't phrase your question using the format I provided? Don't stress. Do the best you can. If you need to deviate from the format, groovy. As long as you are clear and succinct, I'll be able to help.
- You'll receive an answer to your question(s) within 48 hours. Rest assured: I'm freakishly punctual.
- If you don't receive a reply within 48 hours, please check the Spam / Trash / Promotions folders in your inbox, just in case my email got filtered there by mistake.
- Still don't see anything? Please email me and I'll get you sorted out. Thank you!

As your Biz Mentor, I'm here to advise you — but you are in the driver's seat. It's your life. Your path. You don't always need to get “advice” on every move.

Sometimes, you just need to trust... that you already know what to do.

I believe in you!
